CHIEF MASTER SERGEANT KARMANN-MONIQUE POGUE

Chief Master Sergeant Karmann-Monique Pogue serves at the Senior Enlisted Leader Space Delta 10, Space Training and Readiness Command, temporarily located at the U.S. Air Force Academy, Colo. She is responsible for all matters regarding the health, welfare, morale, and effective utilization of DEL 10 personnel. Her teams develop and publish basic, tactical and operational level doctrine for U.S. Space Force, they represent the USSF in the development of joint and multinational doctrine and lessons learned forums, assist in integrating the proper representation of doctrine in scenarios, wargames, exercises, experiments, models, and simulations; capturing, analyzing, and submitting lessons learned and develop, execute, integrate wargame tasks and requirements across the Service and assist Space Delta 13 in developing, executing, and monitoring Service-wide education policies and material related to doctrine. Chief Pogue is the principle advisor to the DEL 10 commander and squadron commanders on the career progression, utilization, training, and organization of the enlisted force as well as providing mentorship to USSF Guardians. Chief Pogue advocates the Commander's goals, objectives, and policies to all DEL 10 personnel, ensuring adherence to standards and developing combat-ready space warfighters.

Chief Pogue is a native of Tucson, Ariz., and enlisted in the Air Force in May 1999 as a Space Systems Operator (1C6X1). Her background includes numerous space operations positions, providing space based theater ballistic missile warning, space electronic warfare, ground based missile warning and space domain awareness operations. She has trained combat air, sea and land forces to operate in GPS & SATCOM denied environments and developed adversary war employment concepts to replicate realistic threats to the space force enhancement mission. Chief Pogue has extensive experience as an operator, instructor and leader and has served at the squadron, group and Combatant Command. Her operational deployments include OPERATION ENDURING FREEDOM, OPERATION IRAQI FREEDOM and Combined Joint Task Force-Horn of Africa Operations. Chief Pogue transferred to the USSF Sept. 1, 2020.
